Árainn Mhór

Arranmore Island is situated off the west coast of Donegal along Ireland's Wild Atlantic Way. Árainn Mhór is an ideal location for an educational holiday.

Aidhmeanna / Aims of the course

A language lives by being spoken. Ta bród agus riméad ar mhuintir an oileáin teanga a sinsir a labhairt agus a choinneáil beo.

The primary aim of the course in Coláiste Árainn Mhóir is to foster a love for the Irish language and culture. To achieve real progress in the speaking of Irish, it is important that students use Irish at all times. The staff will provide all the support and encouragement necessary.

Pre junior cert classes are graded according to age, aptitude and ability. Their main aim is to increase the students confidence and fluency in the spoken language.

Pre-leaving cert students are given specialist tuition in preparation for the leaving cert exam.

Foireann / Staff

All teachers are highly qualified and have been selected for their ability to encourage and motivate young people.

The staff/student ratio is in the region of one member of staff for every ten students. Youth leaders or "Ceannairí" stay with the students in some of the houses. The large number of staff ensures that the students are adequately supervised and given the maximum of attention.

Clár Ama / Timetable

10.00 a.m. - 1.00 p.m. - Ranganna na Maidne

1.00 p.m. - 2.45 p.m. - Dinnéar / Dinner

2.45 p.m. - 4.35 p.m. - Imeachtaí Tráthnóna

Afternoon activities afford the student the opportunity to use Irish in a natural and relaxed atmosphere. These include singing, dancing, football, volleyball, tennis, basketball, rounders, beach games, hill-walking and swimming under strict supervision. Indoor games include table tennis, badminton, drama, music and board games.

5.45 p.m. - 8.00 p.m. - Am tae / Evening meal.

8.00p.m. - 9.45 p.m. - Imeachtaí na hOíche

Evening activities include ceilis, debates, concerts, themed ceilis, ceili disco, talent competitions, quizzes, treasure hunts and beach barbeques.

Ceol agus Dramaíocht

Great emphasis is placed on music and drama in Coláiste Árainn Mhóir. All students perform on stage with their house through drama and talent competitions. Talent competitions are held nightly. Everyone is encouraged to bring along musical instruments, though no responsibility can be accepted for the possible damage to same.

Lóistín / Accommodation

All students stay in Gaeltacht homes which have been inspected by the Department of the Gaeltacht and officials of the college. All houses are of a high standard. The Bean an Tí follows a varied and healthy menu. It is worth emphasising that regular conversation with the members of the household is perhaps the best and most effective means of improving ones degree of fluency in Irish. This is why students stay in the homes of Irish speakers rather than in a of centralised college building.

Cuairteanna / Visits

Parents are encouraged to visit their children though it is important not to interfere with college activities.

Canúint / Dialect

Students of Junior and Leaving Cert must be familiar with all dialects. Oral and aural examinations account for 50% of the overall marks at leaving cert.
